HOLY WEEK IN HAMILTON

Hamilton churches have a history of coming together during Holy Week, in the lead up to Easter. Each year a different church hosts the services and this week is the turn of Hamilton Old Parish Church on Leechlee Road. You can follow the Passion Play as part of the nightly services at Hamilton Old Parish Church.

Additionally, on Friday there is a Vigil of the Cross from 12-3pm in St John's Parish Church, Duke Street; and on Saturday, a Renewal of Baptismal Vows at 7.30pm in St Mary's Episcopal Church, Auchingramont Road.

After the dawn service on Sunday, at the Old Parish, breakfast rolls are served in the halls. The regular Easter Sunday morning service concludes with communion. You and your family and friends would be most welcome to attend any or all of these services.
